

About the partners

The British Chambers of Commerce is the national Chamber of the United Kingdom. As the largest business umbrella organisation BCC has 54 accredited Chambers located across the UK that have some 130,000 corporate members and employ 4.5 million people in a comprehensive range of industries. Many smaller Chambers are also affiliated with BCC though accredited Chambers. It is estimated that more than 1 million businesses have direct access to BCC services.

CCPIT – China Council for the Promotion of International Trade

Founded in 1952, China Council for the Promotion of International Trade (CCPIT) is the national trade and investment promotion agency in China, under the auspices of the State Council, maintaining cooperation with over 200 countries and regions. CCPIT has 65 municipal and provincial sub-councils, 700 branches and a membership of 70,000 companies in China. It also operates the largest trade arbitration network in China and oversees the International Chamber of Commerce (China).

BCC and CCPIT have been working closely together for the last two years, building on the success of the two networks of cooperation, reaching a strategic partnership agreement on which the current LinkToChina Programme is built.

BCC LinkToChina www.linktochina.org operates the China-UK Business Matchmaking project nationally. The national Head Office of the project is based in Thames Valley Chamber of Commerce Group. The BCC LinkToChina Advisory Board consists of members from BCC, CCPIT and leading Chambers in the BCC network and partners.

Chamber International is the Regional Office for Leeds, Bradford and Yorkshire for the BCC LinkToChina Programme.
